This detached house in Ormideia sits on 118 square meters of internal living space, offering four bedrooms and two bathrooms across a layout ready for a new owner to shape. As a resale property currently unfurnished, it comes as a blank canvas rather than a finished showpiece, with the structural work already done and the interior open to a buyer's own choices in furnishing and finishing.

The four bedrooms give room to separate sleeping, working, and storage needs, while the two bathrooms support the household without a single shared facility. The floor plan is stated only in room counts and square meters, so exact room dimensions and arrangement are best confirmed at viewing.
