A modern two-bedroom apartment finished in 2026 occupies the top floor of a building in Kamares, where it opens to both city and mountain views. The 80-square-meter interior comprises two bedrooms and two bathrooms, all furnished and ready to move into. The layout flows from a living area with panoramic views across a kitchen to the bedroom spaces, each with its own bathroom. Outside the windows, the horizon stretches across the valley, framed by the surrounding peaks.

Kamares is a residential area within the Larnaca district. Supermarkets, restaurants, and pharmacies sit within the neighborhood, and the highway connection makes onward travel straightforward. Low-rise
