Perched on the top floor of a secure, gated complex built in 2008, this inviting 55 m² one-bedroom apartment offers an easygoing lifestyle in the peaceful village of Oroklini. An appealing choice for first-time buyers, professionals, or those searching for a low-maintenance holiday home, the residence combines elevated privacy with the comforts of community living.

Inside, the space is arranged for effortless daily comfort, offering a bright open-plan living and dining area alongside a practical kitchen setup. The bedroom serves as a restful retreat, neatly serviced by a full bathroom. With optional furnishings available, this residence presents an adaptable opportunity to move straight in or style the interior precisely to your personal taste.
